WDS Marketing and Public Relations Receives Three Top Awards From Business Marketing Association

Mission, KS (July 1, 2003): WDS Marketing & Public Relations received three top awards for public relations and marketing excellence from the Kansas City Business Marketing Association (BMA) at their annual “Fountain Awards” presentation on June 25, according to agency president, Becky S. Wilson.

This is the second consecutive year Mission-based WDS has won three of the four awards for public relations from BMA. Wilson’s agency was honored with the highest honor, the “Fountain Award” and two “Awards of Merit” for public relations campaigns that included media exposure and brand development and were created for a local staffing agency and Lee’s Summit-based Snake ‘n’ Rooter.

The “Fountain Awards” are given annually for excellence, innovation, and creativity in business-to-business marketing and public relations by the Kansas City Business Marketing Association..

WDS Marketing and Public Relations is a twelve-year-old agency specializing in business-to-business marketing, public relations programs, media campaigns and business milestone anniversary celebrations. The agency’s web address is WDSPR.com
